I lift up my eyes to the mountains-
where does my help come from?
My help comes from the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot slip-
He who watches over you will not slumber;
indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord watches over you-
the Lord is your shade at your right hand;
the sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.

The Lord will keep you from all harm-
He will watch over your life;
the Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.
-Psalm 123

CALL TO WORSHIP

In you, Caring God, we find all we need. Some of us come in joy and wonderment. Some of us come quaking with fear. Some of us come confused and needing a guiding hand. Others of us come distracted or angry or bored. Some come aching with pain or uncertainty. But we all come - because we know that here we will find you, and praise you, and thank you for the breath of life that is ours today. Accept our worship Lord as an offering of our tender hearts. We bow before you and praise your name. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Prayer of Confession

One: God of mercy, you place before us the needs of the world.

All: But we have so much going on in our own lives we have little energy left to respond.

One: God of mercy, you place before us the needs of the world.

All: What can we do in the face of such need? We are reluctant to even try.

One: God of mercy, you place before us the needs of the world.

All: Are there not others who have more responsibility to do something than we?

One: God of mercy, you satisfy our needs and shower us with blessings, forgive us when we turn away from others. Please, O Christ, open us to possibilities for relationship and service to those in need of your care.

All: Forgive us Lord, and help us start anew as ambassadors of your mercy and love.
