

Summer is in full-swing in Stephentown. I don't know why, but I am more keenly aware of the changing seasons since living here. Sitting out on the manse porch, I enjoy the summer's night air. The birds are singing. The sun stays out longer before setting in glorious splendor. The farmstand is open again, and the gardens are producing their harvest after a long winter's nap and rollercoaster spring.

This is the season that begins the harvest. This summer in worship, we've been exploring the harvest of Fruit of the Spirit. The Fruit of the Spirit is what is produced in us—when we live intentionally with holy habits of relationship. Each fruit grows out of the Love of God for one another. Each is nourished in Self-control—to counter our natural instinct to defensiveness or only thinking of our own needs. We reap the harvest of:

- Patience even with those who have hurt us, walking with love and grace without condemnation.
- Peace—or wanting others to flourish and grow, even when we disagree.
- Joy—or celebrating when we've been through hard times, and taking pride or delight in the ones we love.
- Kindness—or benevolence, serving to ensure the needs deep within each of us are honored.
- Generosity of attitude or extending grace to those who do nothing to deserve it.
- Faithfulness and Gentleness round out the list. We'll hear more about the toward the end of summer.

If you've ever been a gardener, you know some crops fare better than others. You can almost always expect zucchini to be coming out your ears. (The only good use for zucchini is in chocolate quick bread, in my opinion—but you didn't ask me). While it may take years for blueberry bushes or strawberry plants to produce a bumper crop. Likewise, some Fruit of the Spirit comes easier than the others. Some relationships are rich and fertile. Other relationships make harder for us to see any growth at all.

Here's what I see when I look over the fields of Stephentown. I recently attended an event at the library for new residents. It seems the people this town attracts are those who will grow where they're planted. But I think we all long for a connection and community (even those grew up here, and are surrounded by family). We have the opportunity to provide a harvest to the entire community. It is a harvest to meet the basic hunger for connection and spiritual meaning.

Every growing season requires a little faith and trust. We till the soil, add the nutrients, add water that gives life, and look to the light of the sun. We provide all the conditions for growth. But it is the faithfulness of God who gives the growth.

"Sun, moon, and winter, and springtime and harvest. Sun, moon, and stars in their courses above. Join with all nature in manifold witness—to thy great faithfulness, mercy, and love."

The Community Breakfast Group News

We had our first "all church" breakfast meeting June 5th and we had a great time catching up with each other. The major topic for the discussion was holding a picnic in the fall. After lively conversation, we've decided to join forces with the Sonshiners
to host a community BBQ.
Details are in this newsletter.
The idea was to celebrate the end of the summer season and visit with those who travel south for the winter. The group hopes to make this like the mid-winter turkey dinner, with the great fellowship and fantastic meal.

We also are planning to host
the turkey dinner again,
February 25th, 2023.

Our hopes are high that we can meet again for breakfast for the remainder of the Fall dates - October 2nd, November 6th and December 4th.

If you'd like to be on our e-mail
list, please reach out to Paul McMillan, Larry Eckhardt or Ted Bears. Everyone is invited to join us -come one, come all. We especially ask you to attend our
"All church" breakfast on October 2nd. It will be after our BBQ picnic so we can talk about the event.
